Detroit, Mich., Aug. 17.-Ornament met defeat to-day in the Campau stakes, in which Moncreith won very easily, Orna-ment second, with Meadowthorpe a close third. Four days ago Moncreith ran un-placed in a mile and a sixteenth event, in which Charley Christie, Kinney and Oscura were the placed horses. Yet they suy that "Umbrella Bill" McGuigan had reformed since the days when he used Small Hopes as a ringer on the trotting turf and since he was allowed to return to the run-

In a game in Cincinnati, Seymour pitching, every player batted left-handed.

A hit, an error, five assists and one put out were credited up in the play which retired Hogriever in the third. He hit to Gilien too sharp to be fielded out. The hall went into the outfield and George fumbled it long enough to allow Hogriever to get to second. He kept on to third and Gilien, Mullane, Glenalvin and Hollingsworth ran him down. Hogriever gets the hit, George the error, Gillen two assists, Glenalvin, Mullane and George one assist each and Hollingsworth the put out.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press. Why is Gillen given two assists? The rules say "an assist should be given to each player who handles the ball in assisting a run-out or other play of the kind." On the St. Paul theory, should a runner be trapped between second and third and the two basemen in "second and thord and the two basemen in "second and thord and the two basemen in "second and there are the play of the wenty four assists and one put out would have to be credited on the play. It looked as though his life would be trampled out, but the horses were guided safely around his body and he was unharmed. Clark was unable to rise and was carried off the track. A physician who examined him reported that no bones were broken and said that he had received in the fall what prize fighters term a "knockout blow."
